

Houston Chapter | Diocese of Texas

October 28, 2007

Dear friends,

Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Ephesians 3:20

Integrity Houston invites you to Holy Communion, followed by dinner, on the last Friday of every month for the next year.

According to the Book of Common Prayer, our mission is to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ. Our ministry is to represent Christ and his Church; to bear witness to him wherever we may be; to carry on Christ's work of reconciliation in the world; and to take our place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church.

In witness to the Church and to the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender community of Christ's inclusive, redeeming, and transforming love, Integrity Houston will gather to continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers. We hope you will join us.

Our first gathering will be on Friday, November 30, 2007 at seven o'clock in the evening. The Very Reverend Joe D. Reynolds has kindly agreed to be our first celebrant and preacher.
